Golf's Trailblazing Titans

The U.S. Kids Golf World Championship globally unites young players

In the Village of Pinehurst, golfers aged 5 to 12 gather from across the globe to participate in the prestigious U.S. Kids Golf World Championship. As the largest junior golf tournament in the world, the event provides a remarkable platform for the next generation of golf's greats to showcase their skills and build lifelong friendships spanning the oceans.

The tournament's schedule is brimming with activities that captivate both participants and spectators alike. The Parade of Nations sets the stage where young golfers proudly represent their countries, showcasing the diversity and global appeal of the sport.

Families bond over their shared love for golf in the thrilling Parent-Child Tournament, creating memories on and off the course.

Trackman Demo Days introduce innovative golfing technologies, enhancing participants' skills, and offering a glimpse into the future of the sport.

The heart of the tournament lies in three intense rounds of championship play. Young golfers demonstrate their remarkable skill, determination, and composure as they navigate the challenging fairways and greens. The competition is fierce as each one vies for victory and to leave an indelible mark on the history of junior golf.

The tournament concludes with a spectacular Closing Ceremony that brings together players, families, and the Pinehurst community to honor the hard work, sportsmanship, and dedication of the young athletes.

After the championship, the excitement continues with the Van Horn Cup. This one-day best ball tournament features the top 12-year-old boys and girls competing on the esteemed Pinehurst No. 4 course.

The U.S. Kids Golf World Championship at Pinehurst celebrates the present and also fosters the future of the sport. A testament to the passion, dedication, and talent that lies within these young golfers, Pinehurst becomes a hallowed ground where young dreams and boundless potential connect, and the fairways come alive with the promise of a bright future for golf's next generation of stars.

From everyone at Coldwell Banker Advantage, we extend a heartfelt welcome to all the participants of this remarkable tournament.
